WHY CHOOSE IMPERIAL?

When you select Imperial as your provider of office furniture, you're making a deliberate choice to champion environmental sustainability. Our commitment to reducing our ecological footprint is woven into every aspect of our operations, from sourcing materials to manufacturing processes. This dedication has earned us prestigious accreditations, underscoring our adherence to the highest environmental standards and giving you confidence in our sustainable practices.

Imperial is proud to hold ISO 14001:2015 certification, an internationally recognised standard for environmental management systems. This accreditation ensures that our operations are designed to consistently prioritise eco-friendly practices, minimising waste, reducing energy consumption, and lowering our environmental impact. Furthermore, our Forest Stewardship Council (FSC Mix®) certification guarantees that the Melamine Faced Chipboard (MFC) used in our furniture is sourced from responsibly managed forests with a minimum of 70% FSC certified or recycled content, and the remainder from other controlled sources. This certification promotes biodiversity, supports sustainable forestry, and ensures that our supply chain aligns with rigorous environmental and ethical standards.

By partnering with Imperial, you're choosing a business that is wholeheartedly committed to reducing environmental harm while delivering exceptional office furniture that combines quality, style, and functionality. Our sustainable practices mean you can furnish your workspace with confidence, knowing that your choice contributes to a greener, more sustainable future without compromising on design or performance. Imperial's dedication to sustainability empowers you to create an inspiring and environmentally responsible workplace.
